John and Alice Egan Multi Year Mentoring Scholarship

1: GENERAL The Egan Multi Year Mentoring Scholarship Program is for Flights willing to commit $500 annually to a three or four year mentoring program. Freshmen not eligible. For an individual student, the Foundation will supplement this $500 with at least $2,000. This scholarship is not tied to the Matching Program. This program is conducted in three phases.

Recertification covers continuing actions by the scholarship winner, the Flight and the Foundation to ensure mentoring objectives are met. Subsequent year applications also have a 1 June deadline for Flight submissions in order to ensure Foundation approval.

2:FLIGHT ACTIONS The Applicant must fill in all information below. The student must also provide a complete scholarship application and arrange for the university to send a transcript directly to the Flight that includes all courses taken through the Spring Semester each year. The Flight will include the student's application along with this Re-certification input and mail to:
